

March News 2023

Dear Parents,

February has gone and March has rolled in. I am so pleased to see how much students have grown in many areas of their learning. This month will be celebrating Dr. Seuss's birthday and his contribution to children's love for reading. This month we will include plenty of activities to help the children grow and develop in every area of their social, physical, academic lives.

Themes:

Dr. Seuss, Wind & Kites, St. Patrick's Day, and Spring. In math we will continue learning how to graph, create patterns, one to one correspondence, measuring and sequence. In literacy we will be continuing to learn about rhyming, letter recognition and our journal writing.

The letters of the month will be, Q, Z, K, U, E
The numbers of the month will be 18, 19, 20

Special events of the month include the following:

Current family registration packets will be sent out Thursday, March 9th, and will be due back on Friday, March 17th.
